

THE WORLD IS COMING TO A MOUNTAIN IN THE TEXAS HILL COUNTRY

KERRVILLE, TEXAS – Since the entrance was first opened in July of 2012, thousands of people from across Texas, the USA and world have been climbing a 1,930' hill in the heart of the Texas Hill County to meet with God. They have come from as far away as Israel, France, Canada, Mexico, Finland, Uganda, New Zealand, China, Nigeria, Australia, Switzerland, Hungary, Germany, the Bahamas and the Philippines. People are coming to see the art and experience the “open heaven” or “spiritual vortex” that is reported to exist at the unfinished 23 acre religious park. Over the four day 2013 Easter holiday, 1, 474 people visited the Kerrville, TX garden in 650 vehicles, according to official counters.

Previously, Pastor Marti Falck traveled all the way from Tampere, Finland to see the giant 77'7” cross sculpture which is billed as the most symbolic cross in the world because of its visual metaphors. The pastor stated: “I have seen thousands of crosses around the world in over 60 nations, but I have never seen an empty cross. It will draw international attention to Kerrville. The Empty Cross will touch the nations. It is about Jesus, not art. I came 9,000 miles from my home in Finland to see the cross.”

THE COMING KING SCULPTURE PRAYER GARDEN, which is located at the same latitude as Israel and approximately halfway between the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans on Interstate 10 is the site of over $2,250,000 worth of monumental Christian artwork, donated by three internationally collected Christian artists, Beverly Paddleford, David Broussard and Max Greiner, Jr.

However, the monumental art is not the only thing drawing visitors to the free, non-denominational outdoor Tabernacle. According to oral and written reports, thousands of lives are being changed by God. Thousands of people are experiencing documented supernatural miracles including healings, signs and wonders. These miracles, which occur daily at the unfinished garden, happen when people pray inside the hollow, 77'7” contemporary cross sculpture, in the name of Jesus Christ. Both the Christian and secular media have taken notice. Many people are also experiencing genuine supernatural miracles by simply visiting the non-profit organization's website: www.thecomingkingfoundation.org.

Foreigners aren't the only ones who have discovered the treasure hidden in the Texas Hill Country. CEO of New York Seminary, Dr. Henry Kang said: “The Jewel of Texas is in Kerrville because of the cross!” Even the locals are starting to discover what they have in their own back yard. Raymond Valadez of Wimberley, TX said: “It is just incredible! We have come here nine times in six weeks. The presence of God is here. We love it!”

Some people are perplexed by all the reports of supernatural miracles. However, garden founder and artist/evangelist, Max Greiner, Jr. (61) has an answer: “The miracles are not our fault! They happen all over the 23 acre property when people cry out to God in the name of Jesus. Jesus Christ worked miracles two thousand years ago and He is still working them today! Disney World spends millions of dollars creating special effects at their theme parks to draw tourists. We don't have to do that here in Kerrville. The Holy Spirit is in charge of our special effects!”

Despite the fact that the garden is not finished yet due to lack of funds, THE COMING KING FOUNDATION Trustees and volunteers believe God will one day send the final two to three million dollars needed to complete the ambitious project, which is being built without debt, professional fundraisers or public tax money. The 501c3 private art museum has already raised and spent over two million dollars on the spiritual park, not counting the donated sculptures.

For more information of the free Christian park visit the website of THE COMING KING FOUNDATION (www.thecomingkingfoundation.org) or call (830) 367-7706. Tours are available with advance notice.

PHOTO CAPTIONS:

306 people traveled to Kerrville, TX from as far away as New Mexico, Dallas and Houston to attend a one hour Easter Sunrise Service held on 3/31/13 at THE COMING KING SCULPTURE PRAYER GARDEN.

The visible Shekinah Glory of God (Exodus 34:29 & Isaiah 60:1) materialized out of thin air on many of the worshippers who visited the unfinished, non-denominational Christian garden over Easter. The unknown sparkling substance, which has been examined by numerous scientific labs including Texas A&M University, looks like fine glitter. It spontaneously appears on the hands, faces and clothing of people seeking God anywhere at the free 23 acre Tabernacle park.

Hundreds of visitors experienced Holy Communion in the 7' wide inner space of the 70 ton, 7 story, 77'7" tall contemporary sculpture by artist/evangelist, Max Greiner, Jr., which is called "The Empty Cross."