TCKF ELECTS NEW OFFICERS, TRUSTEES

KERRVILLE, TX—The Coming King Foundation (TCKF) has elected new Officers and Trustees for a 12-month term, according to President Max Greiner Jr. New Trustees include Clint Fiore, Tina Hammock, Barbara Sullivan, Nicole Huff and Carol Lenard, all from Kerrville, who join returning Trustees Dr. Bruce Cook, Rev. Fern Lancaster, Max and Sherry Greiner Jr., Rebecca Jons, Rev. James Wilson, Kelly Wren, Rev. Ryan Huff, James and Sharan Barnett, James McKnight, and Johnny Sharp.

New TCKF Officers include Max Greiner Jr., President; James McKnight, Vice President; Carol Lenard, Secretary; and Clint Fiore, Treasurer. Two special awards were also presented at the TCKF annual meeting May 22 to James McKnight as “Trustee of the Year”, and to Mary Cox as “Volunteer of the Year”.

“I am encouraged and excited by the caliber of strong servant leadership represented on our Board of Trustees,” said Greiner. “This is an exciting period in the life of our Foundation, our community, and Kerr County,” he added, “and we look forward to moving ahead with the vision God has given us to build a world-class sculpture prayer garden on our scenic property overlooking IH-10 and Kerrville.”

Phase one of the garden project involves raising a 2 million dollar, 77’7” metal cross near the highest point of the property, and then completing a visitors’ parking lot and entrance. Several nationally-known and collected Christian artists have donated their sculptures for the garden, including Greiner, Beverly Paddleford of Lander, WY and David Broussard of Dallas, TX. The nonprofit, tax exempt foundation is operated by private charitable gifts.
